

Garfield Heights Parks and Recreation
to hold 53rd Annual Ice Skating Show

This year's Annual ice show titled "Skating the U.S.A." will be held for one night only on at 6:30 pm., on Saturday, March 26 at the Dan Kostel Recreation Center, 5411 Turney Road.

This annual event showcases our outstanding skaters from ages 3 to adult, who participated in the 2021/2022 Learn to Skate Season, as they display their talent and gracefulness in the wonderful sport of Figure Skating.

The Garfield Heights program is fortunate to have an outstanding group of coaches who spend countless hours with the students, perfecting the intricacies of this demanding sport. Our coaches have all began their careers right here in Garfield Heights in our Learn to Skate program. In this year's show, we also will celebrate skating champion and Garfield Heights' own – Ms. Katie McBeath who got here start right here in the Learn to Skate program on Saturday mornings. Katie is a former skating coach and teacher at the Dan Kostel Rink. She competes internationally in Pairs Competitions with partner Nathan Bartholomay, placed fifth in the 2022 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, Olympic trial, and fifth in the ISU Four Continents Figure Skating Championships Pairs skating.
